

The BROAD AX

HEW TO THE LINE; LET THE CHIPS FALL WHERE THEY MAY

Vol. XVIII.

CHICAGO, FEBRUARY 8, 1913

No. 19

Gov. Edward F. Dunne and the Other State Officers were Inducted into Office in the Midst of a Vast Multitude of Distinguished Citizens

HON. FRANK K. DUNN, CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT ADMINISTERED THE OATH OF OFFICE TO THE NEW STATE OFFICIALS.

GOVERNOR CHARLES S. DENEEN IN HIS LAST ADDRESS TO THE LEGISLATURE HIGHLY PRAISED GOVERNOR DUNNE AND WISHED HIM AND HIS ADMINISTRATION UNBOUNDED SUCCESS.

MILES J. DEVINE, GRAND MARSHAL OF THE FAMOUS COOK COUNTY DEMOCRATIC MARCHING CLUB AND HIS SILK HATTED ARMY EASILY CARRIED OFF THE HONORS OF THE DAY.

THE NEW GOVERNOR IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS STRONGLY ADVOCATED MANY IMPORTANT REFORMS WHICH ARE PRACTICAL AND IF ENACTED INTO LAWS WILL BE OF LASTING BENEFIT TO THE PEOPLE.

COMPANY C. OF THE 5TH REGIMENT AND COMPANY H. OF THE 5TH REGIMENT, ILLINOIS NATIONAL GUARDS, INTELLIGENTLY DISCHARGED ALL THE MILITARY DUTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE INAUGURATION CEREMONIES.

THE RECEPTION AT THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION IN THE EVENING WAS ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT AFFAIRS EVER HELD IN THIS STATE. IT WAS ATTENDED BY MORE THAN THREE THOUSAND OF THE MOST EMINENT MEN AND WOMEN OF ILLINOIS.

JULIUS F. TAYLOR ATTENDED IT AND WAS CORDIALLY GREETED BY GOVERNOR AND MRS. DUNNE AND BY THE OTHER RICHLY COSTUMED WIVES OF THE NEW STATE OFFICERS.

The writer left Sunday evening for Springfield, Ill., on the 11:45 train over the Chicago and Alton Railroad, to witness the induction into office, Governor Edward F. Dunne and the other state officials, arriving there early on Monday morning, in the midst of a raging snow storm; then when it ceased snowing along about eight o'clock, and the atmosphere became clear and bright and when the sun had emerged forth in all of its brightness the air became cold and sharp, and for sometime it was thought that there would be no street parade, but Adjutant-General Frank S. Dickson, who was the grand high chief of all the affairs, pertaining to the inauguration of the new governor, thought it would not do to sadly disappoint the people in this respect.

So shortly after 10 o'clock the street parade formed in front of the St. Nicholas Hotel, in the following order: Platoon police, General Frank S. Dickson, grand marshal, Col. R. J. Sand, chief of staff; aides Colonel S. O. Tripp, Colonel Frank D. Whipp, Colonel Henry Lavis, Major H. T. Loper, Major Chas. Walk, and Captain H. H. Tuttle; Watch Factory band; the Jefferson Marching Club of Joliet, Ill., the Democratic Marching Club of Bloomington; the Cook County Democratic Marching Club, headed by its famous band, with Grand Marshal Miles J. Devine in command and he and his silk hatted army two hundred and fifty strong, easily carried off the honors of the day.

Those occupying the carriages in the parade were as follows:

Carriage one—Governor and Mrs. Charles S. Deneen, Governor-elect and Mrs. Edward F. Dunne.

Carriage two—Lieutenant Governor-elect Barratt O'Hara, Mrs. O'Hara and Representative James H. Farrell of Chicago, chairman of the joint legislative inaugural committee.

Carriage three—Secretary of State C. J. Doyle, Secretary of State-elect Harry Woods and wife and Senator E. Keller, secretary of the joint legislative inaugural committee.

Carriage four—State Auditor James

S. McCullough, Auditor-elect James Brady and Senator Edward Glackin, member joint legislative inaugural committee; Senator Walter I. Manny, also a member of the joint inaugural committee.

State Treasurer.

Carriage five—State Treasurer Edward E. Mitchell, Treasurer-elect William Ryan and wife and Senator Edward Barr, member joint legislative inaugural committee.

Carriage six—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis G. Blair, Senator Francis P. Brady and W. H. Cornwell, members joint legislative inaugural committee, and Representatives Ferdinand Garesche, also a member of the joint committee.

Carriage seven—Attorney General William H. Stead, Attorney General-elect Patrick J. Lucey and wife, and Representative Arthur Roe, member of the joint legislative inaugural committee.

Carriage eight—Representatives Edward J. King, Walter Provine and Benjamin Kleeman, members of the joint legislative inaugural committee.

Carriage nine—Sub-committee on inauguration of democratic state committee, Arthur Charles, chairman; Ernest Hoover, W. T. Cantrell and Mr. A. Brennan.

Central Committeemen.

Carriage ten—Member sub-committee on inauguration of democratic state committee, Robert M. Sweitzer, Michael Zimmer, Edward F. Drennan and W. L. Sullivan, private secretary to Governor-elect Dunne.

Carriage eleven—Members democratic state central committee, Frank J. Walsh, James J. McCormick, Michael F. Sullivan and James J. Townsend.

Carriage twelve—Members democratic central committee, Peter Reinberg, John A. Logan, Fred LeRoy and C. J. Dittmar.

Carriage thirteen—Members democratic state central committee, John W. Williams, H. W. Wheeler, Joseph A. Wells and Clint Tilton.

Carriage fourteen—Members democratic state central committee, James McNabb, Jerry J. Kane and Thomas

HON. EDWARD F. DUNNE.

The new Democratic Governor of Illinois, who does not believe in the color line in state affairs. And who possesses such a large amount of that broad Catholic spirit, that he will never consent to assist to place "Jim Crow" legislation on the statute books of Illinois.

HON. CHARLES S. DENEEN.

Ex-Governor of Illinois, who highly praised Governor Dunne and other Democrats for assisting to make his two administrations successful.

MRS. EDWARD F. DUNNE

Courtesy of The Chicago Tribune.

The amiable and well balanced wife of the new Governor of Illinois, who is eminently qualified in every way to discharge all the social duties devolving upon her, as the first lady of this state.

J. Newlin.

As Governor Dunne does not believe in the "Color line" in state affairs, he instructed General Dickson to order out Co. C of the 5th regiment and Co. H. of the 8th regiment, Illinois National Guards, one Colored and one White, who intelligently upheld the military arm of the state along the line of march in and around the state capital after the parade and at the Governor's manison during the reception in the evening.

Near onto 12 o'clock the imposing procession arrived at the state capital which was crowded inside as well as the grounds around it by a vast throng of people, as soon as the outgoing and the incoming state officials and their distinguished guests were as-

(Continued on page 2.)

HON. SAMUEL A. EITELSON.

The able and eloquent Senator from the Third Senatorial District, who labored night and day to secure the $100,000 appropriation to construct the new armory for the 5th Regiment Illinois National Guard.